ORIOLE NEWS

from Mrs. McCarron & Ms. Sara

January has been a very mild and rainy month so we have been unable to use our sledding hill and build snowman like we were hoping too. Our main focus this month has been wintertime, polar animals, bears & hibernation, and snowmen. Some of our favorite activities this month were reading Snowy Day by Ezra Jack Keats and created our own snowy day pictures. We also listened to The Mitten by Jan Brett and cut out animals and glues them onto a mitten. The Orioles have been very busy practicing beginning writing concepts and working really hard with using scissors.

As we move into February, the Orioles will begin to practice name tracing. I am SO proud of all the great progress they have made.

VALENTINE PARTY - PIZZA LUNCH

The Orioles will celebrate Valentine's Day on Monday, Feb. 13th and Tuesday, Feb. 14th. Your child may bring 25 Valentines to pass out to their classmates. Please have them to school by Wednesday, Feb. 8th. PLEASE DO NOT ADDRESS THEM TO INDIVIDUAL CHILDREN. Your child should sign his/her name on each Valentine. HINT: don't try to do all 25 at one sitting.

There will be a sign-up link emailed if you would like to contribute a few party supplies. We will be making a "Friendship Mix" for snack each day.
